HOW HE SUCCEEDED. BY THE BAND OF GAR MALL.

There is a doctor in our town,
A man of practice and renown;
He makes a handsome income clear,
And lays up money every year.
Now, when he started out in youth,
He had be income. But still he'd try his best to do, And make a name and money too He attended sectures, studied hard, And very quickly passed the board; He opened office, hing out sign, But many patients could not find. Each day he sat, with saddened face, For povetty came on apace; At liest a friend gave him advice Which changed his fortune in a trice. Now pallents flocked from far and near, ans sep into nory at the year;

Men and women, all declare,
No dactor can with him compare.
The secret of his great success,
I'll sell you if you cannot guess;
I'll sell you if you cannot guess;
I'll sell you fill you all.
He got a suit from SMITH'S OAK BALL.
